Hope for Cornwall – Tuesday 17 September 2024 at 6pm at the Hall for Cornwall

Homes for Cornwall is a grassroots movement of volunteers who represent different facets of the Duchy, who are mindful that the chronic housing issue is having a bearing on all walks of life, and who are committed to delivering change to address the housing crisis in Cornwall. As part of our work to help address the issue, Homes for Cornwall is taking over the Hall for Cornwall for an evening of Cornish culture, headlined by Fisherman's Friends, to inspire us and remind us what is at stake.

Homes for Cornwall invites you to an event that will change our Duchy for generations, to celebrate Cornwall's distinctive and creative talent while learning about the role that we can, and must, play in solving our housing crisis. The evening will feature: A showcase of talented Cornish performers to touch every mood and emotion - from choirs to comedians, singers, musicians, poets and more. Alongside this, we will be sharing a new vision for homes in Cornwall. Expect inspiration, ideas, reflection and joy. Join us, bring your colleagues, friends and family and be part of the change.

Alongside the performers you will hear from a handful of speakers who will update you on what Homes for Cornwall is doing, and what we need from others to succeed.

Homes for Cornwall

Dear Friends of Cornwall,

We know how much you care about Cornwall and its people and are no doubt mindful of the chronic issue of Cornwall's lack of housing, that is having a major bearing on all walks of life.

We, Homes for Cornwall, are a grassroots movement of volunteers who represent different facets of our great Duchy, and we are utterly committed to influencing the necessary change to reverse this crisis and see regenerative models of communities take hold.

On the 17th September at 6pm we are taking over the Hall for Cornwall for the evening to bring you an unforgettable experience of knock-out Cornish Culture to inspire us and remind us what is at stake. Amidst this fantastic showcase, we will also hear from a handful of speakers who will present on our vision and share a growing number of solutions that will engender the hope we need.

We would love you to join us at the event and help Homes for Cornwall raise awareness and critical funds to support our movement.

The ticket money we raise will go towards community solutions, the development of our open-source website, our progressive "Acre Project" and generally help us volunteers to keep influencing change.

Supporting Homes for Cornwall could result in someone you know obtaining a home to live in, or your business recruiting the staff members it needs to grow.

The event promises to be a one-off cultural wonder that we know you are going to love.
