Subject: VE-Day 80 Flag of Celebration

The VE Celebration

The Nation will again come together at 9am on 8th May for a national flag raising.

Whilst D-Day 80 was a Commemoration, VE Day is very much a celebration.

Our VE 80 Flag captures the celebrations which erupted around the world, to mark the end of WWII in Europe after the formal acceptance by the Allies of Germany's unconditional of its forces on Tuesday 8th May - 1945, after nearly 6 years of war.

8th May 2025 marks the 80th anniversary and communities across the Country will be holding events to mark this occasion.

There will be parades, thanksgiving services, street parties. singing and dancing and communities coming together.

The county will be a blaze of Red, White and Blue as bunting is strung everywhere and flags flying as we come together again to mark this occasion.

From Government, Civic Authorities, Municipal, Borough, City, Town and Parish Councils, Schools, Churches, Businesses, Associations, Care Homes - anyone and everyone is encouraged to fly / display a VE 80 Flag.

To make this event as inclusive to as many people as possible, especially in these current economic times, we have put together a range of different sized flags to cover all budgets.

These flags are fit for purpose and you can choose either a traditional rope and toggle fitting or an eyelet fitting.

After the success of the D-Day 80 flags and listening to feedback, we have also introduced an 18" x 12" / 45 x 30cm sized flag specifically for window display. This flag will come with an eyelet in the top right and left corners and will be supplied for two sucker cups and hooks for display.

These flags are the Same quality as the D-Day 80 flags, the same price and you get the same service,

6 sizes as standard

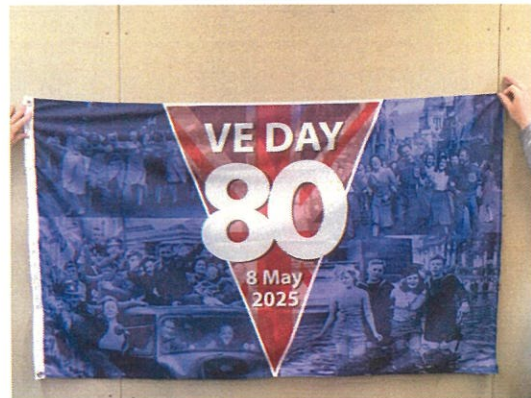

Finish to suit of :

- Eyelet finish
- Rope and toggle finish
