Message from PC Hayley Gething

It has been a busy month for us on Neighbourhood, Sid is still unwell but Meg has really stepped up and has enjoyed getting out and about. Meg and I have visited Torpoint Cadets on Thursday 5th December and given a talk about the roles of the emergency services, we had a great time! I have attended the most recent library drop in session and am being supported by my colleague in Liskeard, PCSO Steve Edser, who has attended the other session this month. Steve and my sergeant, Gary Smith, will continue to help me out over the coming months and will fill in where they can at community events when Meg and I are not available.

From January, we will have a decrease in officers starting their tour of duty out of Torpoint. This will be temporary, with the view to bolstering our numbers as new student officers find their feet. This will not affect the number of deployable officers across East Cornwall as officers will be starting out of different station, Torpoint will still be covered. I know how important it is to residents to see police out and about so have kept my primary tasking open to all officers, requesting that they pay particular attention to our busy areas.
